I Ripped My Pants at School Today

I ripped my pants at school today
 while going down the slide.
 It wasn't just a little tear.
 I ripped 'em open wide.
 Now everyone at school can see my purple underwear.
 Although the sight makes people laugh,
 I'm glad I've got them there.

Happy Labor Day!

Remember doing something with your children is worth more than gold. Making play dough with them and then playing with them will be an unforgettable experience.

EZ Play Dough

What You Need:

One-cup cold water

One-cup salt

Two-teaspoon vegetable oil

Three cups flour

Two tablespoons cornstarch

Tempera paint or food coloring (adjust amount for color desired)

What You Do:

Mix the water, salt, oil and paint together. Gradually work in the flour and cornstarch until you get the consistency of bread dough.

From the Director

Dear Parents:

Welcome all families to your new child care center. We are excited about what new and fun things that are going to begin at the center.

Remember we are glad to service each child and every family member in anyway that we can.

I have posted a calendar of weekly and daily events please pick up a copy from your teacher or a copy from the office.

Every Friday in the summer is Fun Friday at Creative Kidz you will see as a center what we are doing to have a fun-filled day.

If ever you have a concern or just a question, I am always available to you,

Tamar
 Your Center Director

Curriculum Corner

A good learning environment allows children to achieve and practice developmental tasks of the early years. Creative Kidz College provides your child with an environment offering a variety of choices to respond to their individual interests, with blocks of time for developing their ideas. Here's what we will be doing in our classrooms this month:

Attention Parents

Every classroom is doing Assessments on the children at this time
Teachers are trying to set up a meeting to go over how your children are doing!
And explain what they will be working on with your children.

Parent Advisory Board (PAB)

We had an awesome parent meeting in August –We invite everyone to attend on 09/17 to participate in this fantastic program that has sparked an interest in many of Parents. Ms. Berkley has chosen to take the leadership in the (PAB) the following are items we are trying to implement.

CKC has a website: Ms. Berkley and Mr. Morgan are at the beginning stages of a new website for CKC. The website we have now in www.creative-kids-college.com. We are looking to revamp that site in order to have more communication for parents to contact their teachers and the center director, including blogs, and forums.

We discussed fund raiser CKC is now collecting Aluminum Cans we will have a drop off for the cans shortly in the front. Also pennies from heaven – a container will be placed in the front as well for loose change from parents and children. This will help with the refinishing of our back yard. A Bake sale is in the horizons.

CKC has applied for a grant to complete the back yard. Please be patient as we are remodeling this area. Our attentions will be to make it more safe and fun for the children.

Some other opportunities were options to be involved in CKC's hiring process, opportunities for volunteering in the classroom etc.

We discussed the new infant room to more serve the community. The new Elementary teaching program to help the 4 and 5 year old students get more ready for Kindergarten, the assessment process, meeting with teachers and adding more information such as cleaning schedules in the classrooms.
